A RESOLUTION

1 Remembering and honoring the life of Johnnie Cochran, Jr.; and for other purposes.

3 to loving parents who stressed the importance of education, independence, and a color-blind 4 attitude; and

5 WHEREAS, the family moved to Los Angeles, California, where Mr. Cochran received his 6 bachelor's degree in 1959 at the University of California, Los Angeles, before going on to 7 study at the Loyola Marymount University School of Law; and

8 WHEREAS, after passing the California bar in 1963, he took a job with the City of Los 9 Angeles, serving as deputy city attorney in the criminal division until entering private 10 practice in 1965; and

11 WHEREAS, taking a series of highly-publicized cases involving racial prejudice, Mr.
12 Cochran became a prominent and highly respected figure among Los Angeles's African 13 American community; and

14 WHEREAS, after taking a job in the Los Angeles County district attorney's office, Cochran 15 returned to private practice in 1983 and established himself as one of the top lawyers in the 16 western United States, receiving one of his first major victories in the case of Ron Settles, 17 a college football player who died at the hands of police brutality; and

18 WHEREAS, Mr. Cochran is best known for his celebrity cases, which launched his name
19 across the country, including cases against Michael Jackson, Diff'rent Strokes star Todd 20 Bridges, and O. J. Simpson, but he used these as opportunities to shed light on the 21 discrimination affecting everyday individuals from Los Angeles's minority community and 22 was an outstanding advocate for their cause; and

1 WHEREAS, controversial, but effective, Mr. Cochran's engaging manner and sincerity have 2 earned him respect across the country, and it is highly fitting that his legacy be appropriately 3 recognized.
